Collaboration Builder

How does Collaboration Builder work?

- We focus on your challenging project that you need to deliver
- We start with workshops with all stakeholders, getting everyone aligned and motivated by applying the Power of Co system
- We clarify the dilemmas that need tackling and co-design next steps
- We identify a cohort of key people for the ongoing coaching and support
- Fortnightly coaching sessions in small groups and/or individual, to fit your needs
- We design and deliver bespoke workshops as needed to make progress and build capability
- A typical engagement takes six months or more to deliver the outcomes you need on your project

"This program was so important in getting us unstuck and collaborating again. The workshops to get started made a huge difference, and my team and I found the coaching to be so effective. We made huge progress on our problem and we are all collaboration experts now!"
